

Kudo's 1997 Bimini Trip

Miami

In 1997, Jimmy Keiichi Kudo made his way from to Japan to Bimini, in the Bahamas. Jimmy went by way of Chicago and Miami. By 1997, Chalk's Airlines was now Pan Am Air Bridge. He boarded his first Grumman Mallard N51151 to Bimini. His adventure continued by finding his way to the Compleat Angler Bar, just like Earnest Hemmingway did years before. On his return trip to Miami he boarded N2969. He is now a fan of seaplanes & flying boats.

Bimini

Bimini

